Weather
Cloudy, rather fine. The maximum temperature yesterday was 53.8 and the minimum 34.5, the figures for the corresponding day last year being 49.8 and 29.3.

WEEK'S TRADE IN PIECEGOODS RATHER DULL; VALUES FIRM

Yarn And Cotton Recover After Downward Dip

U. S. PRICES SOAR

Big Demand From America For Hairnets

BY DAVID ARAKIE

In many directions the week, from a trading point of view, has been a dull one. There is a slight dull to inquiries in the piece goods section, but values are steady and conditions generally not unhealthy. Actual trade demand has probably increased but it is being met to some extent by speculators' holdings, and this was responsible for somewhat erratic auction prices during the week. Clearances have improved.

Manchester advices this week record advances asked for white shirtings, but May-June shipment can still be given. It would, therefore, appear that manufacturers' order books are apparently not too well filled. Prices for dyed goods, on the other hand, are slightly easier. While the bulk of the recent buying in Manchester has been for Indian outlets it is not generally believed that these have made anything like adequate provision, and when confidence is restored a resumption of buying is fully expected.

Compared with India, the Shanghai, and China markets in general, are still in a poor way.

The revival in the demand for cotton goods from Calcutta and Bombay is the most remarkable movement of its kind which Lancashire has seen for a long time. Many things may have helped to bring it about, but the rise in cotton and the expectation that it will continue very dear have probably been the most potent influences. This Indian buying has had the effect of lowering the stocks in the hands of Manchester millowners and of stiffening the market.

YARN AND COTTON WEAK

During the first part of the week yarn and cotton were very weak and took a downward dip; in the case of cotton it was some two taels and in cotton yarn six to seven taels, caused for the most part by the action of the bears. Yesterday both cotton and yarn recovered, the former registering an advance of one tael, and yarn three points.

In view of the poor demand for yarn, mills have not been inclined to replenish their stocks of cotton, and only some 2,000 bales of cotton were done this week. The tendency, to all appearances, is decidedly upward. Prices for cotton are: Tls. 42 for Shensi, Shanghai 440, Tungchow Tls. 43.50, Hankow Tls. 39. Arrivals of Tungchow during the week have been practically nil, Shensi about 500 bales in all, Hankow a similar quantity and Shanghai some 200 bales a day. Local stocks of yarn, in the hands of mills, merchants and in godowns are about 100,000 bales. Szechuen merchants have been out of the market entirely and the buying was confined principally to small merchants from Tientsin, Hankow etc. Sixteen counts are at Tls. 148 to 158, 20's at Tls. 162 to Tls. 170, and 14's (very good chop) Tls. 160 per bale.

Cotton prices on the New York Exchange went up this week some 70 points, the conviction growing daily that the American crop will not be sufficient to cater to the requirements of the mills and consuming countries. Middling spot was quoted yesterday at 30.95 Bombay reports a steady tone Broach being at Rs. 572, Bengal at Rs. 440 and Oomra at Rs. 513. Sampin yesterday, after declining one yen, recovered the lost ground in the afternoon and closed at yen 254.90 for March. The weekly receipts of cotton in Bombay show a falling off, being reported last week at 154,675 bales against 186,552 bales in the previous week. The estimated stocks have also dropped off. The final estimates of the Indian cotton crop for 1922-23 show that the area sown is 21,119,000 acres, with a yield of 5,196,000 bales. These are increases of 14 and 16 percent

According to Cen Nyi zung, the business of being acting honorary treasurer of a Chinese "money club" is not only wearying work but is sadly detrimental to a carefully nurtured faith in the honesty of mankind and, further than that, a deadly hazard to the reputation and personal liberty of the assignee. Other persons, notably Kyung Kya-sung, Dzung Mei-nyien, Dzoong Yoong-sung, Tsang Nyi-sung and sundry police and Court officials agree with Cen that the treasury profession, as practised by him, is something to be deplored, but more especially by the public at large.

Kyung Kya-sung, who presides over a cigarette dispensary at 143 Woosung Road, was the first to transact business with Cen. The latter called at the shop the other morning and requested small money in exchange for a big dollar. Shortly thereafter he returned and asked Kyung if he would be so good as to accommodate him with a $10 note in exchange for ten silver dollars Kyung was obliging, but evidently a bit preoccupied.

Then there was a lull around the Kyung establishment, which was presently broken by Dzoong and Tsang, who operate combination cigarette shops and money bazaars at 1458 and 1194 Hanbury Road respectively. They wanted to know if Kyung had seen a man whose description fitted his recent caller. This individual, Dzoong explained, had worked off a brass Yuan on him. Tsang admitted a similar victimisation. Kyung made a startled grab for the cash drawer and conducted an inquest. The subsequent symphony in silver was marred by eleven discordant notes. Reaching hurriedly for his hat, Kyung joined his questioners and the search went briskly up Woosung Road. At No. 2052 of this thoroughfare the party paused to admire the manner in which Dzung Mei-nyien, proprietor of the exchange shop located at that address, was upbraiding his wife, Mme. Dzung, it appeared, had bartered eleven perfectly good ten-cent pieces and eight entirely negotiable coppers to a prepossessing stranger for one of those take-apart Mexican dollars. Not content with this piece of bad bargaining, she had, when the prepossessing person called again, furnished him with a genuine $10 note in return for what appeared to be ten silver dollars, six of which her husband had just discovered were plated.

So Dzung was invited to join the hunt, and so furiously did it proceed that in the next exchange shop they found Oen, trying to convince the shopkeeper that the coin under discussion was regulation legal tender.

When searched at the police station, Oen was found to inventory, besides the two $10 notes, eleven dollars in bad standing, one good one, 73 twenty-cent pieces, 26 ten-cent pieces and 106 coppers. To all of which he passionately disclaimed ownership. The coin had been given him for safe-keeping, he declared, by a man who ran a "money club" at 4 Taku Road, and he had believed it to be good money. Investigation at the address given failed to substantiate the yarn, but in Court Oen reiterated it and likewise explained why he had gone him to trade some of it for paper.

The money, when entrusted to him, Oen said, was all in large dollars. He had carted it all the way over to Woosung Road from the Western district and it kept getting heavier and heavier. Finally the inspiration came to him to trade some of it for paper.

Who and where was the man who gave him the money?

Really, Oen didn't exactly know that person's name. Nor where he might be found.

Oen will have a lot of leisure in which to comb his memory during the next six months, he having been withdrawn from circulation for that period.

Maresfield, Uninvited To Stablemate's Party, Drags Skeleton Out Of Hay Mow

Horse Society Circles Agog Over Shin-dig At New Carlton, But It Doesn't Impress The Host's Running Mate Very Favorably

By Westa

Maresfield, the well known galloper, is a spoil-party if there ever was one. Also he is the cattiest parcel of horseflesh that ever guzzled an oat. In fact, when it comes to upsetting the bran mash this celebrated distance annihilator wins the castiron saddle blanket. Also he is awarded the concrete laurel wreath to wrap around his noble bean.

Incidentally, if you are a bang-tail and have social aspirations you'd better make sure there are no skeletons in your hay mow before you stage a blow-out. Otherwise some fine day when you are expecting a call from the compiler of the blue book or watching the papers for the inclusion of your name in the four hundred along will come this Maresfield person to hand you a big, raucous horse laugh.

He did just that thing last night to Glenfield and Letchfield, two of his stable mates.

These two gave a party last evening at the New Carlton—quite the niftiest soiree that has been staged lately in these parts—and to say that bang-tail social circles were agog is to enunciate but one of numerous mouthfuls that might be pronounced on the subject. Dippy is a better word for it. All the cat hounds in town and at Kiangwan were absolutely dippy about it.

MR. MORRISS IN CHARGE

The party was in charge of Mr. H. E. Morriss, as honorary host. Mr. Morriss was retained by the two ponies as a sort of social secretary, with instructions to get up a shin dig that would make all the other jockey toters look like sausage factory fodder. Moreover, this party was designed to fix the social status of all the ponies in town, and in racing circles it is said that one of the main reasons why Glenfield and Letchfield won the Kiangwan Derby and Championships, respectively, was because they were in a hurry to get back to the finish line, so they could work on the invitation lists.

This, however, is probably a bit of catty gossip broadcasted by jealous rivals.

At any rate the party was given and those who were at the New Carlton last night were unanimous in their verdict that Mr. Morriss did his part perfectly. As honorary host he was a Bradley Martin and a Lord Chesterfield rolled into one.

The low down on this party, however, was not obtainable at the Carlton, for nobody there—not even Mr. Morriss himself—knew the inside story of the affair; of the jealousies that were stirred up or the hearts that were broken. That and the other information having a real bearing on this tremendously important event in horse society was obtainable only at the Morriss stables, out on Route du Pere Robert.

Here it was discovered that Maresfield, for some reason known only to Glenfield and Letchfield, had not been invited to the party, and he was sore about it. In fact he was boiling over, his rage made worse by the air of hauteur and cool disdain which the pair of social arbiters assumed toward him.

MARESFIELD UNIMPRESSED

"What did you think of the shin dig?" Maresfield was asked, the question being addressed to him in complete ignorance of the fact that he had not been included in the invitation lists.

"Party!" he snorted. "Say, do you think you could get me—me, twice winner of the Shanghai champions—to lend my presence at any affair sponsored by that pair of mountain goats?"

This reference to mountain goats evidently was extremely distasteful to Glenfield and Letchfield, particularly the former. Both assumed a look of great anxiety as Maresfield continued his tongue lashing.

"That pair giving a party," he went on. "That's good! That's rich!" Here Maresfield let out a horse laugh that shook the barn clear up to the tip of the lightning rod.

"How about four years ago?" he then asked, directing the query at Glenfield. "Guess you weren't giving any parties then, eh what?"

"No," he continued, as Glenfield wiggled uncomfortably. "He wasn't giving any parties then, for the good and sufficient reason that he was hob nobbing with mountain goats up in Mongolia. And you should have seen him then, with his pot belly and his tail full of cuckleburrs! Yeh, he had more whiskers on his legs then than there is hay in the hay mow, and more knots in his mane than there will be optimists at the race track at the spring meeting"

And if, around midnight last night, you heard a hoarse, ribald noise out in Frenchtown that had a strain of mirth in it you may know that it was the horse laugh with which Maresfield concluded his little I—know—him—when speech touching upon and appertaining to the antecedents of his stable mate.

LLOYD GEORGE GIVES UP IDEA OF CENTER PARTY

Reunion Of Liberal Party Not Thought Likely

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 9.—Correspondence between Mr. Lloyd George and the Liberal Member of Parliament, Major Cyril Entwistle, in which the idea of a Center Party is frankly abandoned is regarded in the Lobby as a distinct advance in the direction of a Liberal reunion.

It is stated authoritatively that no political ties whatever now exist between Mr. Lloyd George and the Conservative former Ministers not included in the present Government. The tacit understanding between the two wings of the late Cabinet which led to the presence of Lord Birkenhead and Mr. Austen Chamberlain on Mr. Lloyd George's platform during the election has been abandoned by both sides. It is recognised that in the event of a reunion some half-dozen National Liberals will join the Government in view of their election pledges.

Further developments are expected on March 12 when 70 Liberals, who recently passed a resolution in favor of a reunion, will meet.

No New Clues In Police Murder

No new information concerning the murder of the two Chapei policemen early in the week has been discovered by the Chinese authorities despite the fact that a reward of $1,000 has been offered by Mr. Hsu Kuo-liang, Commissioner of Police of Shanghai and Woosung, for information leading to the arrest of the murderers.

Examination of the bodies of the two men slain revealed that both had had their eyes gouged out, an ancient criminal practice. Patrols in the North Szechuen Road district have been doubled as a result of the murders and every possible effort to run down the murderers is being made by the Chinese authorities.

Y.M.C.A. PLANS 'RADIO WEEK;' ROBERTSON TO DEMONSTRATE

Expert To Give Special Series Of Lectures

CHINESE SINGERS

Hotel Parisien Orchestra Players Entertain

Interest in radio has jumped into such prominence among all classes in Shanghai that the Chinese Y.M.C.A. announced last night that the week beginning Monday, March 12, will be 'Radio Week' at the 'Y.' There will be a special series of lectures on radio and demonstrations of sending and receiving by Prof. C. H. Robertson and Dr. John Y. Lee of the National Committee each night next week beginning at 7:15 and continuing after the lectures and demonstrations so that the classes may hear the programs broadcast each evening at 8 o'clock from The China Press-Radio Corporation of China station on the roof of the Dollar building.

As a sample of the treat in store for radio enthusiasts in Shanghai, and for those to whom radio is as yet unknown, but who are interested, a large number were the guests of Prof. Robertson and Dr. Lee at the library of the 'Y' at 120 Szechuen Road last night and heard the exceptionally fine program given by Dick Adamson's Hotel Parisien jazz orchestra.

Preceding the regular wireless concert the famous Chinese orchestra from the New World and sing song girls from that mecca of entertainment gave a program especially for Chinese last night to which many foreigners listened in for the novelty of the thing. Tonight the orchestra will render more Chinese music.

TEA CONCERTS

The Chinese orchestra also inaugurated tea-time concerts yesterday afternoon when they played from 5 o'clock until 6. The tea time concert was keenly enjoyed by many Chinese radio fans and by a large crowd who gathered at the New World for the occasion. The tea time concerts will be given every afternoon in the future from 5 until 6 especially for Chinese, although next week several foreign numbers will be added to the programs.

Following the Chinese music, the news bulletins broadcast by The China Press and the Bed Time story which appears on the editorial page today Dick Adamson's Parisien orchestra occupied the stage.

"If Winter Comes," the first number played by the Parisien jazz-hounds, immediately brought forth several telephone calls from 'listeners in' who appreciate good music when they hear it. The orchestra also played "Fate" and the "Teddy Bear Blues," two crackerjack dance numbers that set many feet tingling across the ether waves.

Mr. Roy Sharp, the zippy entertainer at the Parisien, next sang two songs—"She Gyped Egypt" and "Carolina In The Morning." Roy Sharp has the happy faculty of putting snappy songs across in an exceptionally taking manner, and the fact that the songs were being hurled into space on wireless waves made no difference. Sharp was at his best and that means good.

Mr. Adamson, leader of the music-makers, tuned up his saxaphone and played "Serenade." The saxaphone is exceptionally well transmitted by radio and Dick was at top form. In the near future he will give some repeat numbers as requested by some of the fans last night.

Mr. Harry Kerrey, the pianist at the Parisien, ended the Parisien entertainer's program with a piano composition of his own, "Dorothy" and put it across the aerial route in wonderfully clear fashion. The modulation was extremely good and not a thing marred what was in all respects an A-1 concert.

'Y' DEMONSTRATIONS

Prof. Robertson and Dr. Lee's demonstration at the 'Y' last night will be repeated tonight at which ladies are invited.

On Monday evening in Martyrs' Memorial Hall the general membership of the Association and their friends are the guests. On Tuesday evening the Japanese Y.M.C.A., through the courtesy of

Women Make Appeal To Council For Better Child Labor Conditions

Representatives Of Many Local Organisations Address List Of Recommendations For Consideration

An appeal for Municipal action toward the bettering of working conditions for children employed in local mills and factories, including the abolition of night labor for children under twelve years of age, has been addressed to the Council by representatives of the various women's organisations in Shanghai.

The appeal takes the form of a letter which was sent to the chairman of the Municipal body, for consideration at the Council meeting of last Wednesday. The text of the letter is as follows:

H. G. Simms Esq:
Chairman,
Shanghai Municipal Council.

Sir:—We have the honor to submit for your consideration the following suggestions in connection with the employment of children in mills and factories in Shanghai.

While fully recognising the many practical difficulties which bar the way to any change of the present conditions, we none the less venture to urge (a) that the Council considers taking such steps as may be necessary to ensure the abolition of night work for children under twelve years of age (foreign count); (b) that the Education Commission at present sitting consider the provision of part time schools in such factory districts as come within the Council's jurisdiction, whereby the number of working hours for children would be automatically regulated, and (c) that the powers of the Health Department be extended to include the supervision of factories in matter relating to ventilation, sanitation and safety.

In bringing these recommendations to the notice of the Council we should like to point out that the Chinese themselves are showing an active interest in the problems presented by the development of industrial labor. At the National Christian Conference held in May last, when 1,200 delegates attended from various parts of China, the following standard was introduced and endorsed:

1.—No employment for children under 12 years of age.
2.—One day's rest in seven.
3.—Safeguarding the health of workers by shortening hours, improved sanitary conditions and the installation of safety devices.

The Chefoo Chamber of Commerce, the Peking Chamber of Commerce and various other Chinese organisations have endorsed the above standards and are at the time seeking the best methods of putting them into practical effect.

We are aware of the interest and sympathy already expressed on this question by members of the Council and therefore venture to hope that the Council will give the above recommendations their careful consideration and use its power to render them effective in the Settlement.

The letter was signed by the following women as representatives of the women's organisations in Shanghai: Mrs. Gull, chairman, British Women's Association; Mrs. Mackie, chairman, Social Service Board, B. W. A.; Dr. Fearn, president, American Woman's Club; Mrs. Harrison-King, chairman, Social Service Board, American Woman's Club; Mrs. Siao president, Shanghai Women's Club; Mrs. T. T. Wang, chairman, Social Service Board, Shanghai Women's Club; Mrs. H. C. Mei, chairman, National Committee, Young Women's Christian Association; Mrs. K. H. Cheu, chairman, social Service Committee Young Women's Christian Association.

It is interesting in this connection to note the co-operation that is evident among the women's organisations in this international city, especially on a matter that is so important to all its citizenship.

TOKIO EXPECTING PEKING DEMAND TO NULLIFY PACT

Courier Believed To Be On Way To Japanese Capital

Exclusive Dispatch To THE CHINA PRESS

Tokio, March 9.—The belief is becoming general here that a Chinese courier will arrive in Tokio next week with documents containing demands for the abrogation of the "21 demands" treaty, or at least a revision of that treaty.

The Japanese press and public are definitely against reopening the argument, and while official information is lacking pending the receipt of the documents it is generally predicted that the foreign office will positively refuse the Chinese demands.

The subject is filling the Japanese press just now.

OBSERVERS IN RUHR PAINT DARK PICTURE OF SITUATION

Unemployment Is On Increase; Thousands Destitute

CHILDREN DYING

"Cauldron May Boil Over Any Moment," Prediction

Exclusive Dispatch To THE CHINA PRESS

London, March 8.—The newspapers paint a gloomy picture of the Ruhr situation. Unemployment in the valley is on the increase; the political situation is called "dangerous and economic affairs have reached a disastrous stage. Thousands of workers are destitute and the death rate among children in many important industrial cities has risen 25 percent because of improper and insufficient food. One correspondent concludes his gloomy review of the situation with: "The Ruhr cauldron may boil over at any minute."

(Reuter's Service)

Cologne, March 9.—The newly established Belgian military summary court at Neuss disposed of the cases of 20 Germans yesterday, its first day, announcing that "the time for mildness is past."

The President inflicted punishments ranging from a fine of 100,000 marks to six months' imprisonment, the latter in the case of a newspaper editor who refused to divulge the names of the contributors of certain objectionable articles.

An appeal by the Burgomaster of Duisburg resulted in the doubling of the original sentence imposed on him. The Court decided that the appellant's contention that he acted under the orders of his Government was frivolous.

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 9.—Further French advances are reported by Reuter's correspondent at Berlin who telegraphs that the French have occupied Rheinau Harbor in the vicinity of Mannheim and also Dorvab Station near Elberfeld.

(Reuter's Service)

Cologne, March 8.—The biggest German industrialists here and in the Ruhr have decided to close their work for at least a month and are paying their workers full wages. Exports have stopped owing to the German refusal to pay the French tax and manufacture is limited to home consumption, which is insufficient to keep the works fully employed.

It is impossible to over-estimate the gravity of the closing down as the idle workers, provided with money are certain to fall into mischief.

The Chamber of Commerce has sent a letter to Captain William Wedgwood Benn, M. P., calling attention to the serious position of British traders and demanding drastic action by the British Government.

It is now impossible to leave the British Zone without encountering French posts.

(Reuter's Service)

Duesseldorf, March 8.—There is now an unbroken French customs barrier from the Dutch frontier to the Swiss frontier, completing the encirclement of the Rhineland in addition to the Ruhr.

(Reuter's Service)

Essen, March 8.—French troops this morning disarmed and expelled the security police at Dortmund, thus completing the disarming and dissolution of the security police throughout the Ruhr, which is consequently without police except the civil police still possessed by certain towns.

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, March 8.—Replying to a protest by jurists of Finland against the occupation of the Ruhr from the point of view of law, the French jurist, Me Pillet, Professor of International Law in Paris and doyen of the faculty, and Professors Mestere and Roblain have sent the following letter:—

The sympathy expressed by the Finns with Germany, yesterday aggressive, today bankrupt, afflicts us. This attitude surprises us because no analogy exists between Finland and Germany, attempting to escape the legitimate demands of her creditors. Germany attacked France and systematically destroyed her richest provinces: vanquished she asked for peace: she obtained it in consideration of promises of reparations: today she refuses to fulfil her pledges.

There is no doubt in face of this refusal that France had the right to take pledges, and in order to force Germany to keep her word, to occupy any part of German territory, the Ruhr for example. This right results from the clearest principles and constant traditions.

It is certain that when a creditor has no other means of obtaining payment, he can lay his hands on the patrimony of the debtor and his action remains entirely lawful so long as he has no other object than the payment of his debt. In this particular case France's right stands out with evidence. Article 248 of the Treaty of Versailles conferring on her the privilege of first claim on the goods and resources of the German Empire.

The army occupying the territory has the right to defend itself and to have condemned by a court-martial whoever may try to hinder its action. The principle has the same value in time of peace as in time of war.

The only difference consists in that for occupation in times of peace it is usual for the occupying party to leave the local authority in its functions provided that the latter does not embarrass the occupying Powers in any way. Officials who disobey or try to hinder the action of the occupying party, there is no doubt, can be lawfully prosecuted and punished.

PRESIDENT TRIES TO HOLD CABINET; FAILURE LIKELY

Effort To Be Made To Get Wu To Modify Attitude

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, March 9.—The President is still attempting to persuade the Cabinet to withdraw their resignations. The opinion is expressed in political circles that his efforts will not be successful but the resignations are not likely to be accepted for a few days.

It is believed that the President and the Speaker of the House of Representatives will send delegates to Paotingfu to try to persuade Generals Tsao Kun and Wu Pei-fu to modify their attitude.

It is important to note that the present crisis reveals that Generals Tsao and Wu are working together, as it had been widely reported recently that there was much friction between them.

It is also pointed out that the militarists have shown their hand clearer than ever before, first by a wire and then by delegates, both urging the appointment of their nominees for the Fukien and Kwangtung posts.

Finally it is reliably reported that the matter was clinched by a telephone message from Paotingfu to the Cabinet practically amounting to an ultimatum.

The Cabinet have issued a circular telegram stating that they desired peaceful unification but certain parties were preparing for hostilities in South China and as the Cabinet could not carry out their policy they decided to resign.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, March 9.—The Cabinet meeting yesterday evening at which the resignation of the Cabinet was decided lasted seven hours.

Politicians are already busy suggesting names for the new Cabinet. The names of General Chin Yun-peng and Dr. W. W. Yen are both mentioned as the possible Premier, but it is interesting to note in that connection that the House of Representatives is intending today to introduce "Chabans" against both of them on grounds of alleged mismanagement of different financial affairs in the past. This is evidently the work of political opponents in order to hinder their chances for the Premiership.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, March 8.—It is understood that the Cabinet's resignation was chiefly due to General Wu Pei-fu's demand for the appointment of his nominees to the Governorships of Fukien and Kwangtung to which the Cabinet this afternoon decided that it could not agree.

President Li Yuan-hung summoned Mr. Wu Ching-lien, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, this evening and asked him to try and persuade the Cabinet to withdraw its resignation.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, March 8.—It is reported that the Government as a result of pressure from General Wu Pei-fu, has agreed to appoint General Sun Chuan-fang Tuli of Fukien but the appointment of General Shen Hung-ying as Tuli of Kwangtung could not be made, it is stated, as it would retard the negotiations between the North and the South.

Peking, March 8.—The Cabinet resigned en bloc today as a protest against the pressure brought to bear upon it by General Wu Pei-fu and other Tuchuns affiliated with the Chihli faction in connection with the proposed appointments of General Shen Hung-ying and General Sun Chuan-fang as Tupans of the Rehabilitation of Kwangtung and Fukien respectively.

During the past two days the Chihli militarists showered telegrams upon the Cabinet, urging it to promulgate the aforesaid appointments without further delay and threatening to execute a coup against it in the event of non-compliance.

At the same time, telegrams were received from General Lu Yung-hsiang, Tupan of the Rehabilitation of Chekiang, opposing the proposed appointment of General Sun, which General Lu declared would be construed as a challenge to Chekiang by the Central Government acting in conjunction with the "aggressive militarists."

Furthermore, it is the view of Premier Chang Shou-tseng that the issue of mandates appointing General Shen and General Sun to the posts referred to above would at once set to naught his reunification scheme contrary in principle to that of the Chihli potentates.

Finding themselves in a dilemma and unable to resist the coercion of the recalcitrant generals, the Cabinet Ministers therefore submitted their joint resignations in accordance with a resolution passed at this morning's session.

President Li Yuan-hung, it is reported, has rejected the resignation of the Cabinet. It is understood that the President is in sympathy with the attitude of Premier Chang.

According to a report, the Government may give partial satisfaction to General Wu by appointing General Sun to the Tupanship of Fukien and shelve the proposal regarding General Shen's appointment. If General Wu should insist upon General Shen's appointment, the report adds, the Government would yield but at the same time publish all telegrams exchanged between Premier Chang and General Wu on the subject to prove that the action was taken under duress.

Further significant developments in the situation are expected.

Keltzowa Farewell

Vera Keltzowa, the Russian classical dancer who has been giving such excellent numbers at the Del Monte Cafe, is giving her farewell program tonight. It is to be made up of the most popualr interpretations seen here of her repertoire, including the following: The Valse Fantaisie, with music by Tschaikowsky; Gipsy Dance, music by Grieg; the Dying Swan, to Saint-Saens music; the Living Sphynx, music by Valentinoff, and Gioconda, music by Ponchielli. Altogether, a program which would captivate a New York or London audience. In addition it will be a "carnival" night at the Del Monte and other promising features are on the card, including Frank Shaw in some of his delightful and inimitable character songs.

"Katinka"

An American musical comedy is admittedly a difficult proposition for an Australian light opera company and the characterisation of the alleged American tourist is even a knottier problem for an Australian comedian.

Yet Victor Prince and Roy Smith's great little company at the Lyceum put over the show "Katinka" in good style again last night. The production should be given a third time and more Americans should see it.

The principals last night were great, the two dancers received hearty applause which meant several encores and the chorus was good. Mr. Prince was the big figure in the show and he got a big hand for his fine work.

Smith has brought the best company that Shanghai has seen in five years—and the writer's memory goes back no further. It is well balanced, embraces singers, dancers, comedians and actors and is therefore productive and an entertaining evening.

Tonight Edward German's "Merrie England" is the offering while this afternoon the company will sing "H.M.S. Pinafore."

LECTURE MONDAY

Madame Bella Pevsner, who is on a lecture tour in the Far East, will deliver an address on Monday (5.30) p.m., at the Y.M.C.A., 120 Szechuen Road on the "Secret of the Jewish Survival." HOUSE PETERS in "HUMAN HEARTS" A UNIVERSAL JEWEL

APOLLO GETS FAMED FILM STORY

Manager of The Apollo Theatre Announces Booking "Human Hearts," a Universal-Jewel

Moving picture patrons of Shanghai are soon to have the opportunity of seeing one of the most talked of pictures of the year. Manager of the Apollo Theatre to-day announced that he has booked the Universal-Jewel attraction "Human Hearts," starring House Peters for an early showing. The exact date will be announced within the next few days.

"Human Hearts," a stage success of a generation ago, was written by Hal Reid, father of the present day screen star, Wally Reid. It enjoyed one of the most phenomenal runs in the history of the stage of that period and had as high as twelve road companies out at one time. In the screen version House Peters plays the stellar role and the excellence of his performance fully justifies his selection for the important and extremely difficult part of Tom Logan. Everywhere the picture has been shown critics were unanimous in acclaiming it the most appealing picture of months, and admittedly the masterpiece of the last decade.

In "Human Hearts" Tom Logan is a simple, lovable son of the Ozark Mountains, who goes about the world with a wonderful confidence in mankind. A woman comes into his life, a city woman wise in the ways of the world, who plans to gain control of his rich coal lands. She weds him and then makes his life miserable, finally eloping with an ex-convict. In attempting to stop the pair the aged father of Tom is killed. Beliving his wife guilty Tom takes the blame. From this point on the story proceeds to a remarkable climax, the action marked by the greatest suspense and dramatic interest.

The supporting cast is of exceptional merit including such players as Edith Hallor, George Hackathorne, Mary Philbin, Russell Simpson, George W. West, Gertrude Claire and others. It was directed by King Baggot.

W.H.C. SUPER-DURABLE FLAT PAINT

FLAT WALL FINISH

A perfect Paint of smooth surface for Interior Wall Coating

The surface obtainable with this paint is smooth and flat, but it is not a grainy, dead, lifeless finish, but of a velvety texture. It dries in a reasonably quick time, so that work can be carried out effectively, yet has the property of remaining open long enough to enable the worker to cover a large surface of wall without making laps or edges.

Excellent results with Super Durable Flat Finish are easily obtained irrespective of the skill of the user, and an elaborate preparation of the surface is usually quite unnecessary.

Super Durable Flat Finish has been tried on non-absorbent surfaces of all kinds and where distemper and oil paint have proved prone to shell or flake off, it has always adhered. It gives a lasting finish of surprising beauty.

BRITAIN'S NAVY ESTIMATES CUT TO £61,401,000

Rigid Economy Reflected In Slashed Figures

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 8.—The Navy estimates for the year 1923/4 amount to £61,401,000 as compared with £69,476,000 last year and £84,519,900 the previous year. It is stated that the estimates were prepared on the assumption that all the signatory powers would effectively ratify the Washington Treaty.

It is expected that over £4,000,000 will be spent on the new battleships, H. M. S. Nelson and H. M. S. Rodney. Nevertheless, the total effective votes have been reduced by £4,617,000 by the most rigid economy. Continuance of this policy could only be justified by the seriousness of the financial situation and the expectation of a general atmosphere of naval tranquility.

The reduction of the Naval personnel by 20,000 is expected to be completed by April 1, except 1,440 officers and men who will be retained pending the Government's decision on the Admiralty's proposal for the Navy in the future to provide its own Air personnel.

Mr. L. C. M. S. Amery, the First Lord of the Admiralty, appeals to the active goodwill of fellow-citizens of the Empire for the thousands of distinguished or promising officers and men who have been severed from the Service to which they are whole-heartedly devoted. The personnel to be voted is 99,500. Recruiting is now very restricted.

FRENCH FIX TONNAGE

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, March 8.—M. Raiberti, the Minister of Marine, today introduced a Bill in the Chamber of Deputies dealing with the High Seas Fleet, fixing, in conformity to the Washington Agreement, the tonnage of battleships at 175,000 tons and aircraft carriers at 41,000 tons while light surface vessels have been fixed at 387,000 tons and submarines at 85,000 tons.

Air Force Budget Is £18,605,000

(Reuter's Service)

London, Mar. 8.—The Air Force estimates for the year 1923-24 provide for a gross total expenditure of £18,605,000 and a net total expenditure of £12,011,000, the latter being an increase of £1,116,000 over the net total for the present year.

A memorandum explains that £6,957,000 of the difference between the gross and net figures represents the gross expenditure in the Middle East. The increase in the net total expenditure is due to a scheme of expansion of Home defence, involving the formation of 15 new squadrons and additions to the three squadrons assigned for co-operation with the Navy in consequence of the impending completion of new aircraft carriers.

The personnel of the Air Force is 33,000 compared with 31,176 but the cost of the personnel is not greater.

The increase in cost is chiefly due to the technical equipment of a number of new types which are shortly being produced. Hence the Air Ministry will place orders with the aircraft industry substantially greater than in recent years and sufficient to maintain an adequate number of firms on a sound basis.

300 Electrical Linesmen Strike

The Electricity Department yesterday issued the following official statement regarding the linesmen's strike:

Following upon extravagant demands concerning revision of the terms of their employment, a number of linesmen engaged by the Electricity Department on overhead construction and maintenance ceased work on Tuesday last. Negotiations having failed, the section concerned numbering some 300 men were paid off this morning.

Steps are being taken to minimise interference with public service and it is asked that in the meantime toleran shall be given concerning any delay which may be experienced in obtaining connection to the supply.

Piecegoods Trade Dull For Week

HAIRNET TRADE

The continuous demand for double cap hairnets from the United States, which has been such a noticeable feature of the hairnet trade in the past few months, has caused supplies to fall off, and this has served to harden rates not only for the double but also for the single nets.

There has been a small trade in singles, which were somewhat neglected in the past few months, and prices all round remain steady. They are $2.30 for 10-38 single size and $3.80 of the same dimension for doubles, $2.60 for 12-38 single and $4.20 for 12-38 double, and $3.20 for 38-40 single and $4.20 per gross for the double.

The local flour market has been week during the week, partly on account of the unfavorable rate of exchange at present prevailing for imports, and partly because of the large supplies expected to arrive in the course of the next few days from the Pacific Coast ports of the United States. The price on the Shanghai Flour Exchange has dropped to Tls. 2.16 per sack against Tls. 2.23 prevailing last week. Only a limited number of orders were placed during the period under review with American millowners in flour, and practically none in wheat. Some 2,000 tons of wheat arrived this week from the States. The American prices are maintained at last level.

Bids from Shanghai and Hongkong to Pacific Coast ports are nearly in line with the American production cost, the differences between f.o.b. offers and c.i.f. bids are believed to be about equal to freight and insurance. Shanghai and Hongkong and also Tientsin are buying flour from the Australian market. Shanghai and Hongkong have been bidding about G.$6.25 c.i.f. for straights, while the prices demanded by Pacific millers, f.o.b., American seaboard, is about G.$5.70. New business is difficult to work in the Pacific northwestern markets, and as prices there are demoralised buyers' ideas are unsettled and causes them to defer providing for the future.

The coal market since the Chinese New Year has grown very dull. The Chinese coal merchants are looking forward to an early decline. In spite of the favorable rate of exchange at present obtaining, no business has been done in Japanese coal. The price of Kailan coal is unsettled, Kailan No. 1 dust being quoted at Tls. 8 per ton and Japanese first-class coal at Tls. 10 per ton, ex-godown Shanghai.

Stocks of both Japanese and Kailan coal have been growing large of late, Japanese coal being held more in larger quantity compared with last month.

S.S. Esther Dollar Not Bessie Dollar Coming March 18

Through error THE CHINA PRESS stated yesterday that the s.s. Bessie Dollar, which was reported in distress in mid-Pacific last month, and which has been towed to Japan by the s.s. Esther Dollar, would arrive in Shanghai on March 20.

The Robert Dollar Company now informs us that the s.s. Bessie Dollar was towed into Yokohama on March 7, but on account of it being necessary to go into drydock the cargo will be transshipped to other steamers so as to get the cargo here with the least possible delay.

The Esther Dollar will arrive in Shanghai on March 18. It was due on March 2 and the delay was caused by the vessel's going to the assistance of her sister ship.

Withdrawn: 50-sen notes, Yen 6,827,000; 10-sen notes, Yen 6,250,000. The total value of small denomination notes in circulation at the end of February was Yen 142,500,000.

It is expected that the Russian refugees will all leave Gensan by the beginning of April.

PICK RECS AS VICTORS OVER CLUB

Skottowe Cup Game Is This Afternoon On Police Field

IS YEAR'S CLASSIC

S. R. C. Team Has Trounced Club Twice And Is Big Favorite

BY KICKOFF

Today, at 3 o'clock on the Police football ground, takes place the great event of the season in the Shanghai world of Association football—the final match for the Skottowe Cup, in which the Shanghai Football Club will be opposed to the Shanghai Recreation Club.

Any meeting of these Clubs on the field of soccer always attracts considerable interest, but nothing quite so much as a Skottowe Cup match. The Recs, who are at the top of the First League table, and have played consistently good football throughout the season, are generally considered to be favorites, especially after the decided manner in which they trounced the Football Club in the First League match on January 20.

Certainly, on form, the Recs appear to have the better chance of winning, though in Cup football form is apt to be much upset, as witness last season's competition, when the present holders of the Cup, the Public School for Boys, beat the redoubtable Engineers (2-1), the Recreation Club (3-1) and the Shanghai Football Club (2-0).

S. P. S. IN 1922

Last year's winners, the Public School, were unable to repeat their performance, and went out of the competition early, as did the Police who had made a habit of annexing the trophy, so with the Engineers not at their best this year, it was a case of the Club and the Recs.

All the omens point to the Recs winning it, as though they have lost Tom Wade, they have a fine range of talent available, both in half back and forward line while their back defence is sound.

The Club on the other hand is weaker this year than for several years past, Shaffer, Seredkin, and Ewing are half-backs which no team could afford to lose, and their absence has handicapped the fine forwards which are the Club's strongest point.

Tonkin is not so young as he was, and cannot follow the ball at the pace he used to do.

Of course in football, anything may happen, but the Recs look pretty sure to be the Skottowe winners this time.

It is interesting to recall the matches that have led up to today's final. The first round was on December 23, when the holders went under to the Police to the tune of two goals to a cipher, the Recs trounced the Customs by seven clear goals, the Football Club "A" team put an end to the hopes of the Engineers to the extent of three goals to one, and St. Xavier's scored five goals without response from the S.F.C. 'B" team.

THE RECS' RECORD

In the penultimate round, played on January 13, the Recs again scored seven goals, St. Xavier's being the victims, while the Football Club qualified for the final by netting the ball three times against the Police, who scored but once.

As Skottowe Cup finalists, the Recreation Club have an enviable record. They have been in the final nine times, and have won the cup seven times, their only defeats being in 1908-9 when, after a drawn game, "A" Company, S.V.C. won by the only goal scored, and again in 1920-21, when they went under to the Police by three goals to nil.

In striking contrast, the Football Club, while having been in the final round on no less than fourteen occasions, have managed to win the Cup four times only, on none of those occasions were they playing their opponents today. The last occasion on which the Football Club won the Cup was the season 1911-12, when they beat the Customs by the odd goal in three. The last time the Recs secured the trophy was in the season 1919-20, when they scored one goal without reply from the S.F.C. That game was considered by many to have been the best in the whole of the many years of the competition, and there is no reason why today's contest should not prove equally good from the viewpoint of a spectator.

Captain E. I. M. Barrett will be the whistle-holder today, and he will be assisted on the line by Mr. H. F. Landers, the well-known and popular referee, and Mr. C. J. S. MacDonald, the star half-back of the Police, who went to Hongkong with the Interport team last month.

Mr. John Prentice, President of the Shanghai Football Association, and probably the oldest, staunchest and most popular of football lovers in Shanghai, will present the Cup to the winning team after the game.

THE LINEUPS

Here are the teams:

FOOTBALL DINNER IS TONIGHT AT THE UNION CLUB

There are two big events in Association football in Shanghai today. The first is the final for the Skottowe Cup, particulars of which will be found in another column, and the other is the dinner which is to be given at the Union Club at 8 p.m. in honor of the team which recently went to Hongkong and brought back the Crown Colony's Association Football flag.

Mr. Sidney Barton, C.M.G., H.M. Consul-General in Shanghai and Patron of the Association, and Mr. John Prentice, the Father of Association football in Shanghai and President of the Association, together with other prominent local gentlemen, will be present.

The whole affair should prove extremely pleasant, for there will be a good dinner and an excellent program of entertainment, to which some of the very best of our local entertainers (and some others also, it is whispered) will contribute.

The honorary secretary of the Shanghai Football Association announced last night that as there are still some seats for the dinner vacant, and as it is the wish of the Association that as many as possible should be present to do honor to the Interporters, anyone desiring to be present may secure a place on application before 10 a.m. today to Mr. E. P. Graham Barrow at the Cathedral School, to Mr. N. J. Hughes at the Municipal Health Department, to Mr. E. G. Barnes at Messrs. Harvie Cooke and Co., or to Mr. C. W. Hampson at No. 28 Kiaklang Road. All applications should be accompanied by the sum of five dollars.

HARRIERS MEN HIT LONG TRAIL THIS AFTERNOON

Shanghai Harriers Club senior runners will travel eight miles over the Club championship course this afternoon with Captain Wilson taking the men out from the American School at 3:30 o'clock.

Junior cross country runners will go on a three and a half mile jaunt with Rose making the pace.

CHINESE BOXING SHOW PLANNED BY MA LIANG

Mr. Ma Liang, formerly Defence Commissioner of Tsinan, gave a reception to the representatives of the educational and commercial organisations and newspaper organs at the Great Eastern Hotel Thursday in connection with the National Boxing Art Movement of which he is an ardent advocate.

A boxing demonstration will be held at Shanghai from April 14 to 16. It is planned to raise 20,000 dollars from the sale of tickets for admission to the demonstration. The proceeds, apart from being applied for the expenses of the demonstation, will be contributed to some charitable cause to be decided upon later by a special committee.

General Ho Feng-lin, Defence Commissioner of Sungkiang and Shanghai, will be requested to be the honorary president.

Basketball Series To Start This Afternoon At Nanyang

SHANGHAI PLAYS

St. John's Team Picked To Cop Title In Tournament

BY K. S. CHANG

The East China Intercollegiate basketball championship series will be officially started this afternoon when the Shanghai College ball-tossers will clash with the Nanyang quintet on the latter's ground.

The game which is to start at 3 o'clock should draw a big crowd of basketball followers, as both teams are evenly matched, and a fast clean game is assured.

The Shanghai College team has been strengthened by the presence of T. T. Zee, the well-known pivot of the Amateurs in the Chinese League, who, realising the importance of a college education has, rejoined his school this term to finish his college course. As he knows the game inside out, he has been busy for the last two weeks in moulding his team.

Another member of the team is D. G. Bao, who plays at guard. Bao was unable to take part in the games in the Chinese League series because he was badly needed then for the Intercollegiate football series. He is the captain of the team.

The Nanyang aggregation will also be very strong, and they will have the advantage of weight over the opposing team. "Big" Shen, who plays at center, will easily be the outstanding player. He and

It is not very hard to predict who will come out as the winner in the series. The St. John's five, winner of the title for the last three years, and champion team in the Chinese basketball league for 1922-1923, should have no difficulty in repeating the victory this year and the win will mean the permanent possession of a silver trophy awarded by the East China Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

The Nanyang team will be the only close contender.

Local basketball enthusiasts have been disappointed by the failure of the playing off of the St. John's-Nuse game to decide the championship of Shanghai. Arrangements for such a game was prohibited by the college team, but it was informed by the foreign champions they have been unable to get their men together owing to the absence of one player and the indisposition of two others.

The Press And The Council

"ANOTHER valuable concession which your Committee has succeeded in obtaining from the Council is the publication in the weekly Municipal Gazette of excerpts from the Minutes of the Council meetings. The Councillors have not yet been persuaded that in the public interest the Press should be admitted to their meetings, but they have accepted and adopted our recommendation that the ratepayers should be continuously informed as to the matters discussed by their elected representatives and the decisions arrived at."—Excerpt from the Shanghai Ratepayers' Association report for 1922, just made public.

That significant statement in the annual report of the Shanghai Ratepayers' Association proves beyond all doubt that the rebuff the ratepayers who desire more light shed on the deliberations of the Municipal Council received last year is not forgotten. There are many ratepayers in Shanghai—and we believe they are in the majority despite the defeat of the motion for admittance of the Press to Council deliberations at the last meeting—who hold that in order to avail themselves of their ratepayers' rights and privileges to the fullest extent the Press should be admitted to Council meetings.

At the present time the Municipal Gazette, through the agitation of the progressive element among the ratepayers, prints excerpts from the Council's minutes, but they are totally inadequate. Under the present system the news may be rightfully considered hand-picked. We do not assume that the Council desires to exercise any censorship over what news shall be given out, and what news shall not be given out—we think, on the contrary, that they are quite willing to give out information in their own way and in their own time.

The Council's position, however, is naturally clouded through the very fact that whether they intend so or not an inevitable censorship does exist under the present system. On the other hand if the Press were admitted to Council meetings the Press would select what news it considered would most interest the public—and surely it is a better judge of what interests the public than our learned Council or the officials who fill the Gazette with immaterial items and bury the really big news—if there is any—in a mass of needless words.

The ratepayers of Shanghai have the right—and in time will win their just right despite the boss-backism displayed by some of the guiding spirits of Shanghai's affairs—of having whatever goes on in the Council rooms the property of the public. The newspapers published in Shanghai are ready and willing to give their readers the news—and the entire news—of the activities of the Council and of the Municipal departments, but it is next to impossible to do so intelligently and to do so at the time the event occurs under a system that might have been considered up-to-date when the dinosaur roamed about the world but became passe with the passing of the said dinosaur.

Admittance of the Press to the Council meetings would also do away with the wholly unnecessary expense of publishing the Municipal Gazette. At the present time the Municipal Gazette is an expense saddled on the backs of the taxpayers without rhyme or reason. The three morning and two afternoon newspapers of Shanghai could give the ratepayers and other residents of Shanghai the news of the Municipal Council and its departments better and with no expense to the taxpayers.

In the elections to be held for the Council in the near future it might be well for the ratepayers to consider among the other qualifications of the candidates whether or not they are progressive and willing to lend their support to the movement to throw some light into the Council's daily deliberations, or whether they still retain the earmarks of feudalism and hold to the argument that sent one prominent railroad financier in the United States into oblivion—"The people be damned!"

It is to be sincerely hoped that the Shanghai Ratepayers' Association meeting on Monday will discuss the question of the admittance of the Press to the Council's meetings and report favorably on a resolution to that effect.

Welcome Robin Causes Much Excitement

BY T. W. BURGESS

Have charity in times of stress
For those who nothing may possess.
—Farmer Brown's Boy.

Peter Rabbit was right about Farmer Brown's Boy. The very first thing he did on the morning after the ice storm was to see that the food shelves he had placed in the Old Orchard were well supplied with food for his feathered friends and for Happy Jack the Gray Squirrel and Chatterer the Red Squirrel. Fresh suet was put up in the trees and on the food shelves were bread crumbs, cracked corn, sunflower seeds, nut meats and small seeds of various kinds.

He was wise enough to have several food shelves, so that there might not be any quarreling over be food. All that morning there was a happy gathering in the Old Orchard. Tommy Tit the Chickadee, Yank Yank the Nuthatch, Seep Seep the Brown Creeper, Dotty the Tree Sparrow, and Sammy Jay were there. Even Blacky the Crown paid the Old Orchard a visit when he had made quite sure that it was safe to do so. Happy Jack and Chatterer were there. Over in the barnyard Bob White and his family feasted on grain Farmer Brown's Boy had put out for them.

It was nearly noon when Welcome Robin arrived. My, such excitement as there was among all the little people when he was discovered! You see, none of them knew that he had not gone to the Sunny South as usual that winter. So when he first appeared it was hard for them to believe that they saw what they did see. How their tongues did fly! Of course, they wanted to know all about it. They wanted to know why Welcome had remained, where he had been keeping himself, what he had been living on and ever so many other things.

But for a while Welcome couldn't answer questions. He was too busy eating. My, how good it did seem to have a change of food and all he wanted of it! He ate and ate until he couldn't hold another bit. He felt like a new bird. No longer did he mind Jack Frost. You see, with plenty of food in his stomach he no longer felt the cold.

Now, of course, the excitement among the other birds was soon noticed by Farmer Brown's Boy, and of course he went over to the Old Orchard to see what it was all about. At once he saw Welcome Robin and he was quite as surprised and excited as any one there.

"Well, well, well!" he exclaimed. "Wherever did you come from, Welcome Robin? You are the last bird I expected to see here on a day like this. It must be that you have been down in the cedar swamp all this time. That is the only place I know of where you could have lived. I suppose that it was hard work to get any berries there after this storm and that is what drove you up here. I am glad you had sense enough to come. Yes, siree, I am glad you had sense enough to come. If you will just stay around here you will never have to go hungry. I will see to it that there is always plenty of the food you like best."

Of course, Welcome Robin didn't understand this, but he did understand that Farmer Brown's Boy was a friend. And his eyes grew bright with pleasure as he looked down at Farmer Brown's Boy. He began to chirp, but those chirps were no longer mournful. They were cheery. They were almost joyous.

The only thing the matter with the world as far as we can see is that there are no rose colored mirrors.

BEAUTY'S FATAL SNARE
(By Li, Han-lin)

The Prince of Yueh wishing to ruin his rival, the Prince of Wu, presented to him a very beautiful girl named Si-Shi, who had been taught all feminine accomplishments. The Prince fell into the snare, and besotted by dissolute pleasures, became an easy victim to the Prince of Yueh who annexed the State of Wu to his own possessions. The Wu Prince then committed suicide.

The ravens roost upon the towers of Su,
While revels reign within the Court of Wu;
The rustic Si-Shi with her peerless face,
Her slender form, her witching smile and grace.

Inflamed by wine, she now begins to sing
The songs of Wu to please the fatuous king;
And in the dance of Tsu she subtly blends
All rhythmic movements to her sensuous ends.

Si-Shi o'er Wu her spell has surely cast,
The King of Yueh has snared his foe at last?
With wine, and song, and dance the hours fly by;
The water-clock has dripped till almost dry.

Behind the hills appears the nush of dawn,
Beyond the river sinks the moon forlorn;
And now the sun climbs up the towers of Su;
What of the revelers in the Hall of Wu!

And A. Dumb Bunny, who still thinks that birth control deals with the regulation of Pullmans in the United States, innocently asks why the figure of Victory is always a woman. Ask poor hen-pecked Pa Jongg. Dumb, ask Pa!

I intended making this a good joke for the last line but after trying it out of some fair vixens at the Chinese party at the Columbia Country Club last night I've decided there are too many advocates of birth control who read the pagoda and so I slapped it into the waste-basket. The others herewith are necessary to fill the column.

Don't Know It All

BY DOROTHY DIX

One of the most absurd follies of the times is the mania we all have for pretending to know everything there is to know. And then some.

It is the fashion to be wise and we solemnly attitudinize in the role of Solomon, which is a misfit for most of us. We don't register convincingly in the part.

No subject is sacred any longer to the specialist. If we have not gone to the bottom of it, we have at least skimmed the cream off the pan of knowledge on every topic, and there is not one of us but who could have told Foch how to conduct the war, and who doesn't know how to settle the Shantung question right off the bat.

Nowadays it is better never to have been born than not to have seen the last play, read the last book, know Babe Ruth's batting average, the length of skirts in Paris, what Einstein's theory of relativity really means, and the unsavory details of the newest scandal. And if this hodge podge of miscellaneous and unassorted information doesn't constitute a universal culture, it is what James Ford used to call culturine, and not one out of twenty of its possessors knows the difference.

So we rave over classical music, and go to symphony concerts where we yawn behind our programs, and applaud in the wrong places. We discourse about values in pictures when we can't tell a chromo from a lithograph. We go into ecstacies over old Spode, and Royal Worchester, when the only way we know it from new American is by the price tag, and we pay down good money to see foreign plays acted by foreign players in a language of which we do not understand one single word, and try to maintain an expression of intelligent enjoyment while we suffer agonies of boredom.

No one has the courage to say "I do not know" any more, though it is charm to conjure with, for there is nothing in the world more delightful than intelligent ignorance. No other companion is more fascinating than he or she whose quick fancy and keen interest follows your every word while you describe to him or her a play, a quaint bit of scenery, a historic spot he or she has never seen, or who listens enraptured while you recount the tale he or she has never heard, or tell the plot of a story he or she has never read.

Alas, that delight is denied us now! Everybody's been everywhere and seen everything, or if they haven't they pretend they have. If Diogenes were on earth now he would not go about with his dark lantern seeking an honest person. He would be on a still hunt for a man or woman who would let him tell him or her something he or she didn't know.

Undoubtedly the women's clubs are largely responsible for this state of affairs, and must answer for it among their sins. As soon as women found out they were ignorant they began to take homeopathic pale pink pills of knowledge on every subject under the sun. Worse still, they doctored their families on the same medicine, and before one could realise the danger the information pill habit was fastened on us.

Every half hour we were gulping down broken doses of literature, and science, and philosophy, on the happy theory that prevails with many other nostrums that if it does no good it can do no harm. Unfortunately, the remedy does not seem to have cured the disease of ignorance, but it has given us us a frightful case of mental dyspepsia.

If it is a mistake for a man to pretend universal knowledge, it is nothing short of deliberate suicide for a woman. The most casual observer must have noticed that the girl with an artless air and an inquiring manner, who is a good listener and has little knowledge, can marry seven times to the clever girl's once. She never swells the ranks of the girl bachelors. No man in his senses ever desired to espouse either an encyclopedia of facts, or an arguing machine.

What he looks forward to is the pleasure of enlightening the ignorance of a dear little creature and having her look up to him as the fountain of wisdom and light. When a woman begins every sentence with "John says" it is a guarantee of domestic felicity so strong you could draw money on it at the bank. "My wife wass a goot woman if dere efer wass one," said an old Creole gentleman, descanting on the virtues of his deceased partner. "She nefer had no mind of her own whatever."

It is human nature to want to be the one who enlightens others. We all yearn for the center of the stage—to be the one to tell the good story and to lay down the law in politics. Desirable as the dissemination of information is, there's entirely too much of the good thing now. It has left us no listeners. Ignorance is still bliss—in other people—and among the most agreeable of our acquaintances are those who do not know it all and who will let us tell them the things we know.

Are You A Rapid But Slip-shod Worker?

BY J. J. MUNDY

Many persons are always in a rush because they waste a lot of time and then have to hurry to get specified things done in a given time.

Fast workers are prone to this habit, for they usually work at such high pitch, and when they let down at all they are apt to dawdle.

Also, the fast worker is often the one who goes faster than he or she can, and do it well.

There is another class of persons who, instead of wasting time dawdling, do a lot of unnecessary work, and put off the necessary thing until the last moment, when there is not time to do it well or finish it.

If the former class would get their work done and then "loaf," and the latter class would get it settled in mind and do the necessary thing first before taking up the unessentials, what a great world it would be.

There are, of course, some men and some women who actually have more to do than any one person could accomplish well, but they are few.

Usually the right sort of planning and the right sort of will power to carry things out will accomplish results worth while, without the feverish haste which results in many errors.

New Engineering Annual Meeting

The annual general meeting of the New Engineering and Shipbuilding Works, Ltd., was held at the Shanghai General Chamber of Commerce rooms yesterday afternoon, with Mr. H. Arnhold in the chair.

During the year, Mr. C. H. Arnhold resigned from the Board of Directors owing to his departure from Shanghai and Mr. H. Arnhold rejoined and became Chairman in accordance with the Articles of Association. Mr. C. R. Burkill also resigned owing to his departure from Shanghai and Mr. A. W. Burkill accepted an invitation to join the Board. Mr. C. A. Skinner was appointed a Managing-Director. At the meeting held this afternoon, these appointments were brought up for confirmation. Mr. C. G. S. Mackie, in accordance with the Articles of Association, retired from the Board but being eligible offered himself for re-election.

The Chairman said:

The report and accounts for the year ended December 31, 1922, having been in your hands for some days, I will follow the usual custom and ask you to take them as read.

	Tls.	Tls.
Profit and Loss Account
The balance at credit of this account (including Tls. 55,542.13 brought forward from 1921) amount to		363,216.14
Deduct—
Depreciation	25,000
Directors' and Auditors' Fees	3,000
		28,000.00
Leaving a balance available for distribution of		335,216.14

You will see that the amount standing to the credit of profit and loss account, including the carry-forward from last year, amounts to Tls. 335,216.14 which is recommended for appropriation as follows:

	Tls.
To pay a dividend of 12 percent on the Ordinary shares	126,000.00
To pay the Preference share Dividend of 8 percent	120,000.00
To place to Depreciation and Reserve Funds	6,798.75
To carry forward balance	82,417.39
	335,216.14

This result, I am glad to inform you, is better than I hoped it would be at times during the course of the year. The depression felt by engineering and shipbuilding concerns to which your Chairman referred last year, still continues, and there has been little demand for new tonnage. Two reasons account for this. First, the belief held by shipowners that still lower prices would be seen, prompting them to delay any anticipated building program, and secondly, a number of second-hand vessels have found their way on to the market at extraordinarily low prices, thereby aiding and still further encouraging owners to defer placing new orders. Fortunately for us the works were kept busily engaged on the completion of vessels which were ordered in 1921, and in executing a very fair amount of orders for small craft, for local requirements, which while not contributing the percentage of profit one would have hoped for, materially assisted in arriving at the results now before you, with their contribution to the running charges of the Works.

It is also gratifying to be able to inform you that there was an increase in the amount of ship repair work done in 1922, as compared with 1921, and we hope that this improvement will continue throughout the coming year.

Competition is very keen, but with economical working and by taking full advantage of the modern and up-to-date plant at our disposal, we can confidently expect this Company to hold its own and obtain its full share of the work available to engineering establishments in this part of the world.

Turning to the balance sheet you will find there has again been a certain amount of capital expenditure. Land account shows an increse of Tls. 3,495.01 being the final payment in respect of residential property purchased in the vicinity of the Works.

When, addressing you last year, your Chairman informed you of the acquisition of a valuable site on the Hankow Bund in settlement of a debt due to this Company, which it was expected would be disposed of on advantageous terms. Negotiations have been in progress in this connection, and offers have been received which would enable the Company to convert this asset into cash at a figure which would fully satisfy the debt which its acquisition expunged. As, however, it is considered the property is worth more than the offer received, and as there is no necessity for a hasty conversion, we are holding out for the figure which, we are informed by competent authorities, the property is worth, and if realised, should recompense the Company handsomely for the delay experienced in liquidating the original debt.

Under the heading of Buildings, Plant and Machinery, you will find an addition during the year of Tls. 107,645.71. This covers the cost of construction of a terrace of houses built on the residential property to which I have just referred, and now in occupation by various members of the staff. The construction of those residences became imperative in view of the housing problem which you know well has been very acute in Shanghai, and the necessity of having certain responsible members of the staff within easy reach of the works. In addition to this residential property, the expenditure covers in final purchase and installation of certain new machines and plant, and completes this part of the program entered upon by the Company some three or four years ago, when it was decided to equip the works as a thoroughly modern and up-to-date shipbuilding and engineering establishment.

Apart from these additions the entire plant, and the Dock, have been kept in a high state of efficiency and repair, the cost of which has, as usual, been charged against profits.

Stocks in hand and in Transit: Tls. 485,248.11.—You will find a very considerable deduction in this figure as compared with that appearing in the balance sheet put before you at our meeting last year. Very careful attention has been paid to the purchase and replacement of material throughout the year, and as during the whole time there was a falling tendency on the market at home, we took the fullest advantage thereof and only ordered what was entirely essential for the immediate conduct of the Company's business. In this connection you will notice that the Materials Equalisation Fund sanctioned by you at our meeting last year, does not appear in the Balance Sheet before you, having been utilised to bring the Company's stocks into our accounts for the year under review, at a figure commensurate with replacement cost, thereby justifying your approval last year of setting aside a considerable sum in this direction. We are thus relieved of having high priced material in hand, purchased of necessity during and immediately after the war, and can now consequently look forward to the figure without any handicap regarding these particular stocks.

Sundry Debtors: Tls. 101,490.-63—This amount is considerably lower than last year, due to prompt payments. The reserve of Tls. 9,159.38 is more than sufficient to cover any small doubtful amounts.

Turning to the other side of the balance sheet, you will find very little alteration from last year. The various reserves stand approximately at the same figures, plus the addition of Tls. 25,000, charged against profits, in respect of depreciation fund. The total of our reserves including the small amount of Tls. 6,798.-75 which you will presently be asked to appropriate in this direction, will then amount to nearly 16 lakhs, in addition to the secret reserve existing by reason of appreciation of certain of the Company's assets.

Bills Payable Tls. 1,906.81: Sundry Creditors Tls. 104,438.18—These are the current outstandings at the year end and have since all been paid off.

I have already spoken generally as to the Company's activities during the year under review, but it may interest you to know that in addition to repair work and a fair number of other engineering contracts apart from shipbuilding, we have completed and delivered during the year, one Shallow Draft River Steamer for use on the Upper Yangtsze, which has given fullest satisfaction to her owners during the one season she has been in service. Another and larger vessel of a new type for cargo work only, was completed and delivered to the order of the Indo-China Steam Navigation Co. She has now taken her place with this Company's fleet in the Shanghai-Hankow trade and in every way comes up to expectations. A third vessel which was practically completed at the end of the year and has since been delivered to her owners. The Shanghai Licensed Pilots' Association, is the s.s. Ling Kung, a new pilot boat and is now on the station at the mouth of the Yangtsze. She is a very fine and well found ship, and we have reason to believe is second to none of her class in any part of the world.

In addition to the foregoing craft, we have constructed and delivered five steam and motor launches, three lighters, one motor driven oil barge, two pontoons, one housebcat, several boilers for local mills, and a fine vessel in the shape of a tender for the Maritime Customs. A large passenger and cargo vessel built to the order of Chinese owners, and for use in local waters, is nearing completion, and construcion work still in hand. Inquiries for small and larger craft are again coming in and having our attention, and with the very efficient plant at our disposal and strict attention to a progressive and ecomomical policy, we hope that the works will be kept well employed throughout the coming year.

This, gentlemen, is all I have to say, but I shall be pleased to reply to the best of my ability to any questions which you may wish to ask.

CASTORIA
for Infants and Children.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells, which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying power, are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them wilfully with narcotics. Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria

Physicians Recommend Castoria.

"Your preparation known as Castoria I have used for years in children's complaints and I have found nothing better."
JOHN J. LEFFA, M. D., Cleveland, Ohio.

"I have prescribed your Castoria in many cases and have always found it an efficient and speedy remedy."
A. F. PESLER M. D., St. Louis, Mo.

"For several years I recommended your 'Castoria' and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results."
EDWIN F. PARDEE, M. D., New York City.

"I have used your Castoria in my own household with good results, and have advised several patients to use it for its mild, laxative effect and freedom from harm."
EDWARD PARRISH, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Your Castoria is a meritorious household remedy. It is purely vegetable and acts as a mild cathartic. Above all, it does no harm, which is more than can be said of the great majority of children's remedies."
VICTOR H. COFFMAN, M. D., Omaha, Neb.

"Your Castoria holds the esteem of the medical profession in a manner held by no other proprietary preparation. It is a sure and reliable medicine for infants and children. In fact it is the universal household remedy for infantile ailments."
J. A. PARKER, M. D., Kansas City, Mo.

Spot and forward bar silver were each down 1-16d. in London yesterday. The New York price declined to 66⅝ cents and the London New York cross rate improved to 470¼. Our official quotations here were unchanged from yesterday and the market was steady throughout the day.

There were generally sellers of Sterling at 3-2⅛ March, 3-1⅞ April and 3-1⅝ May June. There were sellers of Gold Dollars at 74⅜ March, 74½ April and 74¾ for forward delivery.

There were buyers at ⅛d. in Sterling and ¼ point in Gold Dollars above these rates. There were sellers of Yen at 64⅜ for March with buyers at 64⅛ and sellers for April a 65 with buyers at 64⅝.

Banks were quoting 3-3 and 76½ for Sterling and Gold Dollar bills for near delivery and 3-2⅝ and 76 for forward. Franc bills were done at 1265 for near delivery and 1260 for forward.

There was practically nothing doing in either the London or New York silver markets yesterday, both of which are reported as steady.
